

GDPR live webcast schedule

24 May (all times are UK time)

10:00am Q&A on lawful basis for processing Gary Yantin and Nick Henderson, VinciWorks

We will start the day by answering a host of questions we received during and after our recent webinar on the conditions for processing data. Find out when you need to seek consent and which other conditions apply to you. Tweet us during this hour to have your questions answered live.

11:00am GDPR Mythbusters Gary Yantin and Nick Henderson, VinciWorks

Following on from our previous webinar, Nick and Gary will be discussing some of the myths surrounding GDPR and separate the facts from the fiction.

11:30am So you've been appointed DPO. What now? Interview with Andrew Moyser, MHA MacIntyre Hudson Chartered Accountants

Andrew Moyser, Partner and DPO at MHA MacIntyre Hudson will share what he has learned about the role since being appointed as the firm's DPO and his tips for GDPR compliance in a professional services business.

12:00pm Live Q&A on privacy notices and DPIAs Alyssa Redsun and Nick Henderson

Alyssa and Nick will answer questions on privacy notices and data protection impact assessments that we have collected via Twitter, email and live during the hour.

1:00pm Data Protection Impact Assessments (webinar replay)

DPIAs are important for all new data projects under GDPR. Nick Henderson explains how to conduct a DPIA using a seven step process.

2:00pm The ICO's view - what will change after GDPR? Richard Nevinson, Information Commissioner's Office

Richard Nevinson from the ICO will explore the changes that GDPR will introduce to the way we process data.

2:15pm GDPR - getting it right Alex Brown, Simmons & Simmons

Alex will share his insights, as an advisor, on what organisations are doing right in their preparation for GDPR and what could be done better.

2.30pm Live Q&A - ask us anything (about GDPR) Gary Yantin and Nick Henderson, VinciWorks

GDPR requires privacy notices to be published. In this webinar, Nick Henderson explains what you need to include in your privacy notices, where they should be published and describes best practices.

3:30pm Privacy notices (webinar replay)

What changes are you required to make to your privacy notice under GDPR?

4:30pm Dawn raids - preparing for the unexpected Karla Gahan, VinciWorks

In an interactive session, Karla will be guiding organisations through the process of managing a dawn raid as a result of a data breach.

5:00pm Closing remarks and guidance

Presenter bios

Gary Yantin Director of Best Practice, VinciWorks

As Director of Best Practice at VinciWorks, Gary works with law firms of all sizes and corporate compliance departments to provide the best learning experience for their staff. Gary advises clients on learning and risk management solutions including Continuing Competence. Prior to joining VinciWorks, Gary was a lawyer in private practice and as in house counsel.

Nick Henderson Director of Course Development, VinciWorks

Nick Henderson has played an important role in developing VinciWorks' most interactive and customisable courses, such as GDPR: Privacy at Work, Anti-Bribery: Know Your Deal and AML: Know Your Risk. Nick is a policy expert with a background in public, voluntary and private sectors and has expert-level knowledge across a wide range of areas including data protection, regulatory compliance, equality and health policy.

Andrew Moyser, Partner MHA MacIntyre Hudson Chartered Accountants

Andrew is part of the Eastern Region team and specialises in audit, assurance and financial reporting. Andrew has been at MacIntyre Hudson since 2005 and is the firm's Audit Compliance Partner and a member of the firm's Technical Experts Group. In this role, Andrew ensures the firm's audit quality as he reviews the firm's high-profile clients and more complex audits. Andrew leads the firm's audit innovation project – responsible for bringing Data Analytics and Artificial Intelligence into our audit procedures. Andrew is also the firm's Data Protection Officer and heads up the GDPR team.

Alyssa Redsun Operations Executive, VinciWorks

Alyssa is Operations Executive at VinciWorks and is responsible for handling course customisations and other operational projects. Alyssa worked to get several of VinciWorks' courses into multiple languages including French, German and Dutch. She has been working closely with the GDPR team at VinciWorks, and has cultivated knowledge surrounding this topic.

Richard Nevinson Group Manager, ICO

Richard manages the ICO team responsible for external engagement with the private and third sectors. He joined the ICO in 2015 and has taken a lead role in the organisation's policy work on direct marketing, regulatory co-operation, surveillance and connected devices. Prior to joining the ICO, Richard worked in policy and regulatory affairs for eight years. He recently completed a secondment at the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport, where he worked on stakeholder engagement and the Data Protection Bill.

Alex Brown Partner, Simmons & Simmons

Alex is the head of Simons & Simmons' technology, media and telecommunications (TMT) sector and a partner in the Information, Communications & Technology Group in their London Office. He advises on outsourcing and commercial ICT contracts for users and suppliers of ICT products and services. He also has a particular specialism in data protection and privacy. His experience includes handling large scale, complex outsourcings (both IT and business process), software development, licensing and maintenance, telecoms supply and procurement contracts, major commercial contracts for the supply of goods and services and assisting clients in a variety of industries on all aspects of privacy compliance.

Karla Gahan Deputy Global Head of Risk and Advisory, VinciWorks

Karla is a risk, business continuity, and crisis management specialist who has worked across many jurisdictions and has a strong appreciation and experience of the complex subjects that can challenge people's core beliefs and behaviours, such as responding to a global cyber attack, terrorist attacks in various countries, as well as localised, office-based emergencies. Karla has recently joined VinciWorks as Deputy Global Head of Risk and Advisory and was previously Risk & Business Continuity Manager for a global law firm. She is actively involved in various risk and business continuity associations.
